High court sees through BAA intimidation

NoTRAG was one of the groups which was summoned to appear in the High Court on 1 August. Heathrow Airport Ltd and Mark Bullock its Managing Director were seeking to impose draconian injunctions on us. The hearing ended today.

NoTRAG contended it should NEVER have been named in this injunction – that our communities needed protecting from BAA.

The Judge, Mrs. Justice Swift, seemed to agree with us. She said ‘it is regrettable that (Geraldine Nicholson) was EVER involved in these proceedings.’

BAA failed to secure an injunction against Geraldine or against NoTRAG who were awarded costs.

BAA (Ferrovial) has deftly deflected attention away from its intention to wipe our communities off the map. In the High Court today it FAILED to silence us.

Christine Shilling, NOTRAG Press Secretary says, ‘you’ve failed to shut us up BAA and you will fail to ship us out. We’ve been fighting you for 6 years and we are NOT going away. We will not be intimidated. We will not be bullied. We’re no threat to the travelling public but you threaten our communities with annihilation and deprive our residents of hope. The third runway is NOT a done deal. And now you know we are not alone.’
